Health professionals and care providers from all faiths, beliefs and cultures are invited to participate in an interdisciplinary retreat designed to provide respite and renewal, reflection and nourishment, and re-ignite your original call to serve in the healthcare field.

Retreat leaders act as guides to provide a learning and healing environment integrating spirit, heart, mind, and body.

Includes individual and group activities on the following topics, providing practical tools for integrating them into your personal and professional lives:

Awareness of the Call - Reigniting one’s call to serve; learning resiliency skills

Awareness of the Sacred - Recognizing spiritual experiences in everyday life

Boundaries and Intimacy - Practice attentive listening and setting boundaries in patient care

Compassionate Presence - Knowledge of the characteristics of compassionate presence

Attending to Patients’ and Healthcare Providers’ Spiritual Needs - Practicing holistic clinical care

Keeping the Call Alive - Plan to integrate learnings from retreat in one’s workplace

For more information and registration, visit www.gwish.org or call (202) 994-6220.

Physician CMEs and nursing CEUs are available through The George Washington University.