

GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

FALL ENTRY PART-TIME PROGRAM

The Doctor of Nursing Program admits for the fall semester only. This program of study outlines the 36 credits needed to successfully complete the program at approximately two courses per semester. The didactic portion of the program takes two years. Students then have two semesters to focus on their clinical research project.

*Courses with an asterisk have an on-campus component.

YEAR ONE

FALL	SPRING	SUMMER
Nurs 401: Org. Concepts	Nurs 202: Population Health	Elective
Hsci 241: Healthcare Enterprise	Nurs 402: Knowledge Mgmt.

YEAR TWO

FALL	SPRING	SUMMER
Nurs 403: Research into Pract.	Nurs 405: HC Quality	Elective
Nurs 404: Research & Policy	*Nurs 498: Project Proposal

YEAR THREE

FALL	SPRING
Nurs 499: Clinical Project	*Nurs 499: Clinical Project

COURSE	TITLE	CREDITS	OFFERED
DOCTOR OF NURSING PRACTICE REQUIRED: 30 CREDITS
Nurs 202	Concepts in Population Health	3	Spring
Nurs 401	Organizational & Interdisciplinary Concepts in Nursing	3	Fall
Nurs 402	Knowledge Management in Healthcare	3	Spring
Nurs 403	Translating Research into Practice	3	Fall
Nurs 404	Health Services Research & Policy for Nurses	3	Fall
Nurs 405	Healthcare Quality Improvement	3	Spring
Nurs 498	*Clinical Research Project Proposal	3	Summer
Nurs 499	*Clinical Research Project	3	Fall, Spring
Hsci 241	The Healthcare Enterprise	3	Fall