Pastimes
What was best about the students at the School of Public Health and Health Services when I was a student
The diversity of the student body.
What's best about the School of Public Health and Health Services at GW
The strong and geographically dispersed Members of the Alumni Association.
What was best about living in the Washington, DC Area
Feeling part of the national, political scene.
My message to applicants
It's a great school with a long, rich history.
