Pastimes
What was best about the students at the School of Public Health and Health Services when I was a student Students were very supportive. It was a tight group where you could feel comfortable learning.
What's best about the School of Public Health and Health Services at GW The program was well structured. You knew what you needed to do and in what timeframe. Overall, the professors were accessible and had a vested interest in your success.
What was best about living in the Washington, DC Area DC is a very exciting place. There was always something to do. Also, there were good opportunities if you chose to remain local.
